Sustainable Wine & Grape Certification Marketing Plan
September 22, 2021

I. Background Information

The New York Wine & Grape Foundation (NYWGF) was created by the State of New York in 1985 as a private, non-profit organization. The enabling legislation established a financing mechanism for promotion and research, providing the industry with both short-term assistance and the potential for long-term viability. NYWGF’s programs are developed by a 21-member Board of Directors in consultation with other representatives from industry and state government. The activities carried out by NYWGF are designed to support all uses of New York-grown grapes from all regions of the state. The mission of the NYWGF (updated in February 2018) is to “promote the world-class image of New York grapes and wines from our diverse regions to responsibly benefit farmers, producers and consumers through innovative marketing, research, communication, and advocacy.” The vision of the NYWGF (updated in February 2018) is “to be the world’s premier region for cool and cold climate viticulture.”

II. Scope of Services

NYWGF is developing a third-party certification for sustainably grown grapes and wine. The basis for this certification will be the VineBalance Guide to Sustainable Viticulture, a grower self-assessment workbook co developed by the Cornell Cooperative Extension and Soil and Water Conservation Committee of the New York Department of Agriculture and Markets in 2007. This workbook is widely applied across the state, but it lacks a system of third-party verification and logo for special labeling. Growers who achieve certification will be permitted to use the logo for direct-to-consumer marketing. This market-based approach will provide a continuous incentive for value-added producers to purchase sustainable grapes and increase the visibility of sustainable wines in the marketplace.

NYWGF is looking to partner with a consultant to write a marketing plan for the certification program. The goal of this project is to develop a marketing plan that addresses the needs of grape growers and farm wineries as well as the preferences of Millennial consumers who drive the premium for certified sustainable wines. Project activities will include market research that focuses on Millennial wine consumers and the sustainable grape commodity market. Deliverables will include a certification program positioning statement and strategy, promotional campaign playbook, and certification logo style guide.

The partnering consultant should note that the brand identity of New York Wines was professionally updated in 2019 to reflect the industry’s growth, its approach, and its emerging status among other leading wine regions (e.g. Austria, Australia, Napa, CA, and New Zealand).

The sustainability trust mark, marketing plan, and style guide should be crafted with the Boldly, N.Y. elements in mind, and the proposal should address how the trust mark will be integrated into, and/or complement the brand ‘family’.
